Dedication

MR. FRED C. BAAS

DEDICATION

We wish to dedicate the initial edition of THE ARROW, to Mr. Fred C. Baas who concluded his teaching career this term after 12 years at Woodburn High School.

Mr. Baas started his college education in the year 1902 at Union College Barberville, Kentucky. He graduated from the Normal School at this college, and attended Moores Hill College. He graduated from Moores Hill in 1913, with a B. S. degree.

Before completing postgraduate work at Indiana University, and I. U. Extension, Mr. Baas taught at Ripley, Decatur, and Rush County Schools. He also taught at Newpoint High School, before coming to the north part of the state to teach at Goshen High School, and was at New Haven from 1926 to 1929 where he served as Principal.

From 1930 to 1935, Mr. Baas traveled thruout this area selling paints, varnishes, and school supplies. He resumed his teaching in the year 1936 at Woodburn and taught until illness compelled him to retire at the close of the first semester in 1947. Mr. Baas, returned to Woodburn during the first part of the second semester, but illness forced him to return to the hospital and he was unable to finish out the semester. He is at home now, and is recovering from his hospital stay.

Mr. Baas, taught English, Latin, German, and Physical Geography, at Woodburn High School. He is best remembered for his ready willingness to help and give "much needed" advice, and for his humerous ancetdotes, without which, no class of his would be complete.

We join his many other friends in wishing him a speedy and complete recovery.

CLASS HISTORY

On September 1944, 34 Freshman entered Woodburn High School. Marie Hetrick, President, Steve Keller, Vice President, Pauline Stoller, Secretary and Marcile Gerbers Treasurer, were elected officers of the year. The Seniors initiated us with a large party. One of the projects of our class was selling pop at the basket ball games. Parties were held at the homes of Marilyn Messmann, Maxine Hormann and Marie Hetrick to complete our first year.

In September 1946, 22 Juniors returned to the Woodburn High School. James Mourey, Marilyn Messmann and Donna Pletcher were the only ones that dropped out. Officers of our class that year consisted of Don Lispett, President, Pauline Stoller, Vice President and David Portmann Secretary and Treasurer. In the fall of 46 the class had a Hay Ride at Gene Moore's. The Junior Play "The Campbells are Coming" was produced in October. Marie Hetrick, Andrew Zirkelbach, Maxine Hormann, Don Lipsett, Doris Buuck, Charles Becker, Pauline Stoller, David Portmann, Marjorie Hamm and Donald Voorhies composed the cast. The project of the class was selling magazines to pay for our banquet. The Junior-Senior Banquet was held at the Anthony Hotel April 26, 1947. A party at Gene Moore's concluded this most happy year.

Twenty-one members returned the next fall. The Senior Class officers were: Don Voorhies, President, Doris Buuck, Vice President, and Pauline Stoller Secretary and Treasurer. The Seniors initiated the Freshman one nite in October. A Hay Ride started off the evening with two tractors and two trailers, one piloted by Andy Zirkelbach and the other by Clarence Reichhart. The Seniors rode on one trailer accompained by Mr. Henney, and the "Freshies" rode on another trailer accompained by Mr. Moser as their guardian. The ride ended at Roadside Park where several of the Freshman received their Saturday nite "shower." Then all gathered around the fireplace and enjoyed a meal of hot dogs, donuts and cider.

In October we journeyed to New Haven to have our likeness recorded by Mr. Guthier. Also in October the Seniors sponsored a Fall Festival, the first event of its kind at Woodburn High School. A large crowd was present to enjoy the food and try their luck at the various games, including bingo. Robert Buuck, won the G. E. Portable Radio, as holder of the first prize winner in the raffle, Roland Helmke, won a turkey, and Mrs. Jim Butt won a duck. The Festival was a big success.

The Seniors sponsored a Skating Party at Bell's Rank, December 16. Members from all classes were present. Everyone seemed to have a good time.

A lively class party was held at Maxine Hormann's on March 16. Cards and table games were played after which sloppy joes and cokes were served.

Our play "We Shook The Family Tree" was given April 16, 1948. The cast was made up of Marie Hetrick, Glen Wegmann, Marcile Gerbers, Gene Moore, Doris Buuck, Don Voorhies, Shirley Faulkner, Charles Becker, Marjorie Hamm, David Portman, Pauline Stoller, and Maxine Hormann. After the Senior Play another party was held at Maxine's home. The refreshments consisted of sloppy joes, potato chips, and cokes.

Baccalaureate rites were held Sunday, May 2, at the School. Rev. McMath of the Methodist Church presented the message on "I dare you". The Glee Club provided the Music.

Dr. LaFollette of Ball State Teachers College addressed the class on "Today will decide Tomorrow", at the Commencement exercises, which were held on May 7, at the School Auditorium. The Band provided the Music.

On Friday May 7, the Seniors had Class Day. In the Afternoon a program was held in the Gym. Letters were awarded to members in the Band. The D. A. R. Award was recognized. The G. C. Henderson award was presented. Awards were given to the boys playing Softball and Baseball. Diplomas were given to the Eighth Grade Graduates. The Quest Club presented gifts to the Valedictorian and Salutatorian.

To complete our four years of High School, the Seniors took a three day trip to Washington D. C. after school out. Miss Rosentrader accompanied the Seniors. Everyone had an enjoyable time.

WE SHOOK THE FAMILY TREE, a 3-act comedy, was presented by the senior class the evening of April 16, 1948. Mrs. Lowell Meyers directed.

When the play started the Dolson home was in a peaceful state. It wasn't that way long. First Hildegarde (Marie Hetrick), in a speech convinces everyone in town that her father is a confirmed drunkard. Then, the old love letters of Mr. Dolson (Don Voorhies) are passed out among the neighbors. These events succeed in convincing Mr. Dolson's boss, Mr. Shermer (Gene Moore) that the Dolson's are not a normal, contented family. When Mr. Dolson invites the Shermers to his house to show that their home is perfectly normal, contented family, Hildegarde appears with her face covered with beauty clay, and announces that she has found a bass in the bathtub. This, of course, greatly irritates Mr. Dolson, for he had tried to make a good impression on his boss.

While all this is going on, Hildegarde has to find a boy to take her to the prom. Her parents arrange for her to go with Freddie (Glen Wegmann), the only boy who has to wear knickers to school. Hildegarde tells Freddie that she wants nothing to do with him unless he overrules his mother (Marcile Gerbers), and gets a pair of long pants to wear to the prom.

Freddie succeeds in obtaining a pair of long pants, and everythink ends up happy, as Mr. Shermer discovers that sometimes perfectly normal families do act odd.

Others featured in the cast were Charles Becker, David Portman, Shirley Faulkner, Maxine Hormann, Doris Buuck, Marjorie Hamm, and Pauline Stoller.

Good directing, casting and lifelike acting, along with an excellent play made it a big success that was well received by a large audience.

GENE MOORE--Gene played varsity basketball for 4 years at W. H. S. and did a very capable job of holding down a guard berth. He led his team in scoring this year with 250 points.

STEVE KELLER--Another senior who has been a regular on the team for 4 years. Steve played great ball at his forward post, and was a good rebounder. Slowed up this season with a back injury, he, nevertheless, found time to pour 189 points thru the hoop in 18 games.

CLARENCE REICHHART--Clarence played his first season as varsity center this year and filled in capably at that post. His consistent rebounding and pivot shots were an important factor in the Woodburn's scoring attack. He was elected honorary captain for the past season.

LARRY ORT--Larry, a senior, held down a guard post as a reserve and saw action in several games.

KEN FIEDLER--Ken, a junior, played on the varsity this year, helping out at both guard and center. He scored 114 points and will be back playing for the Warriors next season.

BOB BUUCK--Bob played forward on the team this year and proved to be a good ball-hawk and a consistent scored. He is a junior, and will be back for more action next year.

DICK HIRSCH--Dick, a junior, tho not with a starting berth, saw action in nearly every game this season. He plays guard, and will be back to help the Warrior cause next season.

LESLIE BECKER--A sophomore, who saw plenty of action as a reserve forward. He is looking forward to two more years of action, and a regular starting position.

BILL SHANEBROOK--Bill played all season as a regular on the reserve squad, and saw action in several varsity contests. His shooting ability will be of a great help in the coming basketball campaign.

BILL BOESCH--Bill filled the "big man" role for the reserve team this season, and will back shooting for a starting berth at center next year.

WAYNE LONG--"Huey" played guard on the reserves and was a substitute on the varsity squad. Huey has 2 more years of competition before him.

RALPH SCHEIWE--Ralph played forward on the reserves and served as a sub on the varsity. He has two more years of competition. Not a consistent scorer but a good "feed" player.

The Woodburn Warriors had an excellent basketball season this year, finishing with a record of 16 wins and 6 losses. Woodburn led the county thru the first half of the season, and boasted a 12-0 record until Huntertown defeated the locals 34-31. The Warriors entered the county tournament with 12 wins and 2 losses, and defeated Lafayette Central 47 to 34 before dropping a 51-26 decision to Monroeville's Cubs, who went on to take the 25th annual Allen County Basketball Tournament. Woodburn dropped St. Joe and Spencerville, but lost to Monroeville and Leo in the four scheduled encounters after the county tourney.

In the Sectional it was a repeat performance of the previous tournament with the Warriors beating Lafayette and then losing to Monroeville 50 to 35, who went on to cop the Sectional and Regional Tourney Titles.

BASEBALL

Baseball was introduced to the local athletes last spring with a scedule of only 5 games due to the wet spring. The team won two and lost three.

This season the team has more games scheduled and an enjoyable season is anticipated. The Warriors lost to Oakwood 7 to 5, lost to Convoy 11 to 7, and walloped Payne 22 to 1, in the first games of their schedule this year.

The Warriors softball team ended a good season with a record of 12 wins and only 4 loses. Woodburn lost the County Tourney finals to Harlan 8 to 2, after downing Lafayette Central, Arcola, and Huntertown. Gene Moore was elected leading hitter with a .365 average. Several of the home games were played under the lights at Community Park Diamond.

The Woodburn High School Band, under the direction of Mrs. Robert Downey, has had a varied season. The band started with a concert on Woodburn Day, and Halloween led the parade, and played from the band stand during the evening. The band provided music between halves at the home basketball games. The first part of the second semester was devoted to practice and rehearsal for the Allen County Band Festival which was held February 14, at New Haven. The guest conductor and critic was Nilo Hovey. The final performance of the year was played at the Commencement exercises. The band will also give concerts from the band stand every two weeks during the months of June and July.

With the close of the school year, the band lost two members, Shirley Faulkner, snare drum, and Charles Becker, cornet. Roselyn Stucky won a superior rating with her flute solo in the state solo contest.

The Chorus, composed of sixty voices, took part in the Allen County Chorol Festival that was held at Huntertown, April 14. The guest conductor was Norman Bell of the Fred Waring School. Mr. Bell possessed a very dynamic personality and was quite an inspiration to all. The Chorus sang one of his own numbers "Sleep Baby Sleep" and Mr. Bell sang the number himself at the close of the program upon the request of the students.

Most of the first semester was spent in working on carols which were sung when caroling during the Christmas season.

THE FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA is a national organization for students studying vocational agriculture. Leadership scolarship, thrift and farming ability are promoted by the organization.

The Woodburn chapter was organized this year with 24 charter members of which Mr. L. O. Stafford is advisor. The aims of Future Farmers of America include the following: to promote cooperation among rural folk; to give community service; to encourage earning and saving among members; to encourage scholarship; to train leadership; and to promote social and recreational activities.

The program during the past year included monthly meetings, a pest hunt contest with F. F. A. chapters of Huntertown and Arcola. A box social was held with the F. H. A. of the school.

The Junior-Senior reception was held at the Chatterbox in the Hotel Van Orman on April 10, at 6:30 P. M. The theme, "Starbound" was carried out in the decorations, speeches, and music.

An excellent dinner was served, consisting of sirloin steak, mashed potatoes and gravy, buttered peas, salad, buttered rolls, pie, and coffee.

Eloise Gerig acted as mistress of ceremonies and introduced Robert Heinold, who gave the welcome, after which Donald Voorhies delivered the response. Joan Hammond gave a speech of appreciation of the faculty, to which H. H. Henney responded.

The history, prophecy and will were read by Doris Buuck, Joan Roemke and Pauline Stoller, respectively. Eloise Gerig, concluded the evening's activities with the farewell address.

We, the senior class of 1948, present THE ARROW, the first annual ever to be published in Woodburn High School. THE ARROW would not be a reality, without the work of all who made it possible, the staff, the teachers, the advertisers, the alumni and the students.

While this is the first ARROW to make its appearance, we sincerely hope it will not be the last; that it will be possible for many more ARROWS to be published to furnish a permanent record of High School events and memories for future years.

WHILE WIFEY'S AWAY

The Junior Class presented the high-spirited farce "While Wifey's Away," on November 5 at the High School Auditorium. Milo Dillian, (Bob Buuck) finds himself in a quandary when he is informed that his late Aunt Cornelis left her fortune to him providing he can prove he is happily married by a certain date. Milo is married by Clarice (Eloise Gerig) his wife, is away with her aunt, Olivia Maddun (Marilyn Price). He has no way of getting in touch with Clarice, and he becomes desperate. His good friend, Elliott Blair, (Bob Heinold) suggests they hire a girl from the matrimonial agency and have her pretend she is Milo's wife. Then Milo's Uncle Barnaby (Virgil Helmke), who collects pets, wires Milo he is sending Queenie to him. Naturally, Milo thinks it is a pet but really it is Queenie Dillian, (Pauline Bertsche). Later, when Milo discovers a lion on his back porch with the name "Queenie" attached, he thinks it is the pet Uncle Barnaby sent him. With the arrival of the real "Queenie" the troubles are really brewing. Finally Clarice arrives and brings forth a barrage of laughter. The remainder of the cast included: Joan Roemke, Kenneth Fiedler, Joan Hammond, Dorlene Patterson, Loraine Lampe, and Bethel Smith.

The officers of the Junior Class are as follows: Joan Hammond, President, Pauline Bertsche, Vice President, and Eloise Gerig, Secretary and Treasurer.

The Juniors started the year by having a hayride. Bob Buuck pulled the wagon with the Jeep. Chili Soup and Pop were served at Roadside Park. Also served earlier in the evening as an appetizer but not on the menu were 2 varieties of tomotoes, green and overripe, which caused quite an excitement on the wagon.

The highligh of this year for the Juniors was their magazine drive. They were so engrossed in selling magzines that for weeks after you could still hear them giving their sales talk.

In February the class entertained the teachers and their families at the home of Donna Yerks. A valentine tree and balloon made up the decorations. They satisfied their appetite by eating Chili Soup, Ice Cream and Cake. "While Wifey's Away", was presented by the Class on November 5. A cast party followed the Junior Play at the home of Mary Ringenberg.

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS elected Leslie Becker as President, Lois Portman, Vice President, and Ileen Lampe as Secretary, and Treasurer.

A hayride started their class off in a grand style. Delmar Gerbers permitted the class to come to his house for refreshments.

The Sophomores also decided to go out on a dark and dreary nite and scare up all the witches. The occasion, of course, was Halloween.

February will be the month the girls will remember because they decided to put one over on the boys and have a slumber party. The location was Loretta Yaggy's house, and according to reports, they didn't get much beauty sleep that nite.

THE FRESHMAN elected Dick Becker as their president, Max Thompson, Vice President, Carol Faulkner, Secretary, and Tommy Fuelling, Treasurer.

They followed the program of the other classes and also had a hayride. But it seems as if they just didn't quite know how to go about it. The Freshmen got lost. No wonder the fire for roasting the hot dogs was out when they got back. The refreshments consisted of pop.

The next party was a big success. Patty Roberts was hostess. This time they had chili soup and cokes. They played "Spin the Milk Bottle" and "Post Office." (The latter game proved to be the most fun.)

Parties this spring were held at the homes of Donald Reichhart in February and Max Thompson in April. Refreshments at both parties consisted of hot dogs and pop.

THE 7th AND 8th GRADE do not elect officers, and they didn't hold any parties this season. Several of them were observed at Freshman and Sophomore parties, however, and we feel certain that they will fit into the party spirit when they start to High School in the next year or so.

The 7th and 8th grade basketball team participated in 18 games this season and had a record of 7 wins and 11 losses. The practice sessions were held twice a week, and most of the time was devoted to fundamentals. The team is looking forward to a better record next year.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Seniors of Woodburn High,
Feel the time is drawing nigh,
We wish to give, bequeath, and devise,
To the Juniors, all property that we prize.

I, Marilyn Oyer, to Bethel Smith doth bestow,
All my typing ability, which is plenty you know!
And there's more yet, why sakes alive,
I give full possession of typewriter N-536725.

I, Larry Ort, with features so rare,
For light complexions, I carry no flare,
So to one Joan Hammond, I want to bestow,
My dark complexion, 'twill aid her so.

I, Gene Moore, with curly brown hair,
With never a thought of worry or care,
Do hereby leave to Virgil Helmke so shy,
My method of lovemaking and to qualify.

I, Doris Buuck, so comely and sweet,
Who believes there is nothing like defeat,
Do hereby pass along my temper so rare,
To Bob Heinold, who'll do by it fair.

I, Maxine Hormann, ruthless, but mild,
Really I am a wonderful child,
Do hereby with my greatest concern turn over,
To Donna Yerks, my four-leaf clover.
I used it four years and I came through,
Here's hoping it will help you too.

I, Glen Wegmann, with lots of skill,
Don't know quite what to will,
So this to Dick Hirsch I will pass,
My ability to argue in Civics Class.

I, Shirley Faulkner, to Marilyn Price doth bestow,
My bangs and tall, blond, handsome beau,
Also my ability to stay out as late as I may,
And not complain the whole next day.

I, Don Lipsett, have especially one thing to pass on,
To Eloise Gerig my Latin ability which is far gone,
I can't figure out what Latin is good for,
But if you use my ability you will learn no more.

I, Donna Herschberger, so quiet and pleasant,
Nothing in my being does anyone resent,
So to Marilyn Price I hereby give,
The power to get along with people and live !

I, Rosina Woebbeking, do solemnly part,
With the thing that will always be dear to my heart,
But I give it relentlessly to one who can't be,
Having too much of it: my quietness to Loraine Lampe.

I, Marie Hetrick, with love on my mind,
Hold that true love is not hard to find,
It is easy to understand just why,
To Valaria Baker goes my ability to get a guy !

I, Janis Gustin, was going to will, as everyone might know,
My Saturday night dates to Evelyn Knoblauch,
But to her we'll have to bow;
Although she seemed to need them once,
She may not need them now.

I, Marjorie Hamm, so mild and fair,
Would like to will something which I have to spare,
That is my ability to go steady,
To Dorlene Patterson who has tried several times already.

I, Charles Becker, being sound of mind,
Know my kind are hard to find,
But to will to Kenneth Ruger would bring me the greatest of pleasures,
So to you I give one of my lasting treasures.
If you promise to keep them polished up well,
You'll be sure your reward will be something swell.
Really, I haven't any matching equipment or suits,
But to you I solemnly give my cowboy boots !

I, Don Voorhies to Bob Buuck will pass on,
My great ability to play ping pong;
And that someday his luck will shift,
And he will beat another great player, Curtis Schmidt.

I, Steve Keller, to Kenneth Fiedler doth bestow,
Any of the school larnin' that I know.
Or if he would rather, I'll choose it,
It is my athletic ability if he can use it.

I, Marcile Gerbers, doth bestow,
My very blonde hair to Dick Hirsch, whom you all know.
And maybe add a little curl,
In order to help him get a girl.

Pauline Stoller, young and fair,
To Joan Roemke would will her hair,
But since she could use it herself someday:--She thought,
She'd will her ability for the "little girl" part in the play.

I, David Portman, a studious young man,
When it comes to willing, I'll will all I can,
So to Pauling Bertsche, I wish upon,
My giggling and drawing, after I'm gone.

I, Clarence Reichhart, say it's rather confusing,
So many of my better qualities I'll be using,
So to Mary Ringenberg, I'll bestow,
My ability to get on the Honor Roll.

We, the members of the Senior Class,
Gladly bestow (since we did pass),
All the teachers, short and tall,
Really, we won't miss them at all.

On behalf of the Seniors and myself,
Before the will goes back on the shelf,
To be dragged out and murdered another year,
We want to will you our good cheer,
We hereby sacrifice our health,
To all the Juniors, may it bring wealth,
When great Aunt Elizabeth passed away,
She left my father an old cat of grey,
Leaving him a cat that could only purr,
Likewise some of you may be thoroughly disgusted,
With that you have been so readily trusted,
Don't feel blue and remember with cheer,
You can pass it on to the Juniors next year.

SENIOR PROPHECY

This is hard, Maxine, but I'll start with you,
You really don't know what to do,
You want to work in an office, sleep and eat,
And play ball till you're sore in the feet.
You are a "Jack of all trades", I was told one time,
So we'll let you alone ! Make up your own mind.

Donald Voorhies comes up next in our hall of fame,
We see him leaving with a charming young dame.
Professional ping-pong is in his line as you see.
Where he got that idea is beyond you and me.
To share all his glory, he'll of course need a wife.
Then live happy for the rest of his life.

Let's see now, Donna Herschberger what will you do?
I'll bet she also wishes that she knew.
Working in a greenhouse, for a job would be a honey,
Well anyway, we know to live you will need money.
This job for some people might be hard to do,
But we know, Donna, it won't be hard for you.

Larry Ort, doesn't know how to make his choice,
But I think you'll agree, he could use his voice.
But his problem also has a double,
Money, oh brother, also brings him trouble.
In that line, there probably will be some doubt,
So Larry, we'll let you figure your own future out.

Shirley says it's hard to tell what she will do,
Well, that for us is in doubt too.
But you will probably work for a while,
Date a few times and dress in style.
And in the future as I can see,
Shirley the mother of two or three.

Who now do we see leaving our hall?
Gene Moore, the star of our basketball.
He will probably go and work on the farm,
To stay healthy and make a strong right arm.
But it seems he needs someone to give his heart,
And I do believe he has someone fitted for the part.

Janis Gustin wants to go out into the world,
And keep the women's hair wellcurled,
A bright and happy future that should be,
Think of all the faces you'll get to see,
Then raise a family of three or four,
Or maybe Janis would like a few more.

Now lets see, Margie Hamm, what's for you,
I know just the job that is good to do.
Nurse's Training will suit just swell,
You might get married, never can tell.
But whether you marry or whether you work,
We know in your job you'll never shirk.

What's this Glen Wegmann wants to do,
I suppose everyone would love that too.
Make his first million then loaf around,
Where will you make it around this town.
If you could do that you'd sure be a honey,
But you know Glen that's a lot of money.

Charles about your future no one knows,
You want to get west where the stage brush grows,
But you'll stay and work awhile.
Then start west with a great big smile.
We know the way is hard and far,
But you'll be happy way out thar.

Pauline Stoller what about you,
You also know what you're to do.
Youöll work in an office for your dad.
Be careful gal, don't make him mad.
And in the future we can see,
Pauline, happily married, busy as a bee.

Clarence wants to loaf and not move a arm.
That will be hard living on a farm.
If you can you are a lucky man,
But so go ahead and loaf all you can.
And in the end we'll probably see,
You're just as happy as you want to be.

Rosina in an office wants to work,
And we know in her job she'll never shirk.
We hope you do well in all you do.
And that everyone will be good you.
Soon, in only a matter of years,
You'll be happy as success appears.

Marceil has her job and is ready to go,
Whatever she does, she'll do well we know.
"Number please," is the line she'll say,
She'll say it maybe 100 times a day.
But she'll work hard for the rest of her life.
And make some man a wonderful wife.

Steve Keller is next in line,
We can't figure you out, but give us time.
This young man intends to leave our hall,
And start to school again in the fall.
He'll work hard, and spend many a dime,
Then live happy for a long, long time.

Who's next? Oh yes, a gal named Marie,
What's for you well let's see.
Our crystal ball is not very clear,
But you'll be happy do not fear.
You'll work hard and wear the new style,
And face life with a great big smile.

Davy Portman, our pal and friend,
Girls, he brings all your troubles to an end.
Whoever gets him will have to be,
Happy with a Ford, just wait and see.
He'll get married and settle down,
Who knows, maybe mayor of our town.

Marilyn Oyer is our bait for this,
A bright young lady and a charming young Miss.
We don't exactly know what to say,
She's liable to change her mind any day.
She'll work in an office and might get cross,
But she'll be happy when she marries her boss.

Don Lipsett a professional businessman
If you can't take picture, Don can.
He goes to see his girl in a 37 Ford,
But he makes her set on the running board.
He'll keep taking pictures from morning till night,
You know Don, I think we might be right.

Last but not least, comes Doris Jean
A charming young lady, blonde and lean.
We don't really know what to expect of you,
Do you know what you want to do?
You may work, loaf, sleep or play,
But go ahead and by luck be happy every day.

And now you all from school must pass,
We wonder what will happen to the 48 Class,
No more pencils, paper and books
No more teachers, and their dirty looks.
But when you're out if life in different ways,
You'll always remember your high school days.
